UNITED STATES OF AMERICA vs. KENNETH PUGH
CR 02-114-S-BLW

Counsel for: United States (AUSA): George Breitsameter Defendant: Dick Rubin (Federal Defender) appointed Probation: Shane Moore

(X) Defendant provided Constitutional Rights to counsel, preliminary examination and detention hearings.

(X) Defendant DENIED the allegations in the Petition and requests a Probable Cause hearing. Today is the time set for both the Preliminary Exam and Detention Hearing.

(X) Defendant's Oral Motion for the USPO to produce the Probation Department's Oral Chronos for this defendant. The Parties addressed L.R. 32.1 and Rule 26 re: disclosures of the probation departments work product.

(X) ORDER: Court re-set this Hearing to 10am, NOVEMBER 8, 2004, in order for Defendant to file a written motion and the Govt. to file its response. The Court reviewed in camera the chronos and denied the production of them to counsel at this time. Defendant had no objection to the continuance. The Temporary Order of Detention shall remain in effect.

(X) ORDER: Court advised the Revocation Hearing shall be set before Chief Judge Winnill is set for 9:00 am, NOVEMBER 15, 2004.

(X) Defendant remanded to the custody of the USMS.
